Alcohol: 14.5%vol.

Producer Notes: A field blend from 80 year old small plot vine yards grown at altitude between 250m to 600 meter on north east side of river at Vila Nova de Foz Côa . All field work is practically done by hand without the use of herbicides or pesticides. The grapes are stomped in a small lagars, spontaneous fermentation for 30 days. It was aged for 15 months in used oak barrels.

Tasting Notes: “Another super offering, this one is in blockbuster style with big fruit and plenty of power too. The very expressive fruit has a slightly darker feel in this vintage, but it also is plenty delicious. Then, it adds the pure power yet is never really astringent. It is well constructed, as always. This may be the best yet, but put it away for a couple of years, at least. This should easily do 20 years, but probably more..”

Region: Alentejo - Evora

Colour: White

Grape Variety: Field blend of Roupeiro, Rabo de Ovelha, Arinto, Tamez and Alicante Branco

Alcohol: 13% vol.

Producer Notes: Made by the old traditional method of making Alentejo whites by using the original grape varieties from the region. The grapes come from 2 vineyards: Vinha da Nora (60%) with 35+ years old vines and organically farmed since 2015, and Vinha de Vale do Cepo (40%) with 47+ years old vines. The grapes are hand harvested between 3am to 4am in the morning then whole bunch pressed, cold decanted without any additives and fermented. Low intervention throughout the cycle and no malolactic fermentation.

Tasting Notes: “Offers full, honeyed aromas, with hints of beeswax, citrus and ripe stone fruit. The vibrant, tangy palate has a mouth filling texture, plus exuberant acidity that gives a super-crisp finish. Fresh and preserved citrus, juicy grapefruit and candied peel”.

NEW VINTAGE

Colour: Red

Grape Variety: Aragonez 40%, Trincadeira 20%, Alicante Bouschet 30% & Castelao 10%

Alcohol: 14.5% vol.

Producer Notes: Produced in the hot and dry Mediterranean climate of the southern part of Portugal. It is an area known for producing naturally low yields of concentrated grapes. Sustainably farmed in the rocky schist soils. Grapes from vineyards aged from 7 to 50 years. Grapes were hand picked, hand sorted, sliced, and fermented with indigenous yeasts. After native fermentation in vats for 20 days, aged 10 months French oak barrel (50%) and steel vats 50%.

Tasting Notes: “A rather substantial offering. It might even be better in time; shows fine depth, beautiful fruit and hints of finesse. The tannins are ripe, making this easy to enjoy. For the regular Tinto this is a steal and a fine value point. It's a great choice for a house pour. It will hold a reasonable time and can still improve.”

Region: Douro - Cima Corgo - Pinhao

Colour: Red

Grape Variety: Touriga Nacional 40%, Touriga Franca 30%, Tinta Roriz 30%

Alcohol: 12.5% vol.

Producer Notes: The grapes have been produced by the same family for 6 generations. These grapes come from 40 year old vines planted with equal proportions of Touriga Nacional, Touriga Franca and Tinta Roriz. Grapes were harvested early September, foot trodden, and fermented in traditional granite/schist with 40% whole cluster and 30% whole cluster in stainless-steel tanks. Fermentation was done with indigenous yeasts with long skin contact. The wine is aged for 12 months in used French oak barrels and malolactic fermentation was in the used French oak barrels.

Tasting Notes: “ Harmonious piece balanced out against the others. Rock roses, plum, dusky wild blueberry, lifted violets, cassis thorns run the lighter palate, framed by very fine, tight and persistent tannins to a fine, salty, lingering finish. A very welcome 12.5 degrees alcohol reassures that Douro reds can be elegant, delicate, and complex.”

Grape Variety: Field blend of Rabigato 70%, C3dega, Gouveio, Donzelinho, Viosinho & others

Alcohol: 12.5% vol.

Producer Notes: Manually harvest in September, before pressing the grapes were de-stemmed and crushed, no prior maceration was done, the wine was decanted at low temperature for 24 hours, indigenous yeast fermentation and ageing took place in 225L used French oak barrels. The alcoholic fermentation lasted 45 to 90 days without malolactic fermentation. Aged for 12 months in used oak barrel with the presence of fermentation lees without steering and 6 months in stainless steel prior to bottling. All grapes are from the vineyards aged over 80 years located at 650 to 700 meters in altitude.

Tasting Notes: “What stands out is the beautiful freshness. It does, freshen the palate, and it tastes great. It starts with silky texture and ends with a bit of a bite, especially as it airs out and warms up. Two days later, it is better, arguably brilliant. This should be a great food wine for lighter-styled foods, especially in warm weather, its liveliness enhancing dishes. It should age well, perhaps better than anticipated.”

Alcohol: 13% vol.

Producer Notes: Grapes 100% whole cluster were foot trodden in square stone lagars, press is done without prior maceration. Total maceration was 10 days and aged in used French oak barrels for 18 months. The malolactic fermentation took place in oak barrels. All grapes are from vineyards aged over 70 years from a single vineyard in Alijó planted in blue schist soil at 580m altitude.

Tasting Notes: “A strong contender for best, this tightly wound Indie is powerful, precise and long on the finish. The fruit is under those tannins, though, and it has fine flavors waiting to come out. That will require another couple of years. It should then age very well, continuing to open and develop.”

NEW VINTAGE

Grape Variety: Castelao 100%

Alcohol: 14% vol.

Producer Notes: Mono C (Monovaritel Castelao) grapes were 100% whole cluster foot trodden in square containers. Total maceration was 25 days and aged was aged for 16 months in used 500L French oak barrels. Malolactic fermentation was in the in barrels. All grapes are from vineyards aged over 25+ years from a single vineyard in Oliveira, planted in clay loam soil with predominance of yellow slate 490m altitude.

Tasting Notes: “This is not jammy, but the grape still takes on darker overtones. Luis points to his Douro terroir. Overall, it seems perfectly balanced but rather powerful, with a gripping finish that occasionally has a little astringency. I loved the freshness here, even if the flavor profile lacks some of those tasty red fruits. It should improve with a couple of years of cellaring.”
